

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice - December 28, 2011

Spontaneous demonstrations take place in Bahrain from time to time in response to world events or local developments. United States citizens should keep current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surroundings at all times. If you encounter a large public gathering or demonstration, depart the vicinity immediately.

- On Wednesday, 28 December 2011, at 1900 hours, a demonstration is planned in the vicinity of Bilad Al Qadeem (near Shaikh Isa Bin Salman Hwy).
- On Thursday, 29 December 2011, at 1530 hours, a demonstration is planned in the vicinity of Diraz.
- On Saturday, 31 December 2011, beginning at 1200 hours, a demonstration is planned along the King Faisal Hwy (near the Financial Harbor area).

Some demonstrators have engaged in clashes with the police and continue to employ tactics such as placing debris and oil on roadways and throwing steel spikes. These actions often result in adverse driving conditions, an increased police presence, and significant traffic delays. The Embassy expects these tactics to continue throughout this period. Please use caution as you drive, and plan additional time to arrive at your destination.

We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.
